Dear [redacted]

I am thinking of purchasing a new dress for a Friday (Fri 5th Dec) night drink at the Hilton. We could meet at 5.30 pm. I like you in your business suits so look forward to seeing you in that. Then we would match & look very classy.

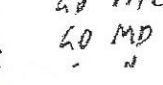

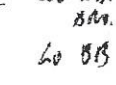

I want to explore a) capital yielding opportunities b) funding in core strategies c) living the life we want strategies and d) having a happy future approaches.

Essentially so far in 2 years of business I have met no one with whom I could chat & I would like to talk more w you. It's worth exploring at the very least.

I have learnt a million paradigms and wanting is just one of them. Because you are hot and sporty we may throw all paradigms out window & just be or talk about them & fill them more. Bla bla bla bla manifests the knowledge base that can direct you.

I keep coming back to you in my mind & trying to grab of Adelaide clearly but see no one and I mean NO ONE who get me like this. You are interesting too & better.

Now I pull my body together to focus + reach the next step. Can you join me & I love you for regarding my shiny paradigm but last paragraph too trying bring back to. In another world I would have been interested. Taping it in was issue in current world. Inherent to big for my society says Rex Lyman. You have it in you. Let's chip away. Tumbling you big. Let's show it down.

You kept listening wait! I thank you in love. You make the... X C ✓ my love & me the... Let's try it!

GO IN? GO BIT AOT
